Synopsis

Experience the exile of the Israeli tribes and the domination of the other civilizations over the Jews. Walk through an Israel controlled by the Romans, but where the Jews managed to conserve their religious identity. Follow the footsteps of Jesus of Nazareth, remember the creation of the Catholic Church two millennia ago, and witness the coexistence of Jews, Christians, and Muslims during the medieval period.

Suffer with the victims of the pogroms of Eastern Europe and Czarist Russian while prominent members of the Western Jewish community fought legally to gain equal treatment alongside other citizens. Follow many exiled Jews to the United States and Argentina and revisit with great anguish the Nazi genocide of millions of European Jews. View firsthand the creation of the Jewish State, after the British control of Palestine ended. And learn about the keys to understanding the complex problems in the Middle East, the difficult situation of so many Palestinians, and the increasing concern surrounding the gradual rise of Islamic fundamentalism internationally.
